

Customer Service is #1 at LogoPutter...

Recently, we received a call from a prospective customer. He explained that he had been searching the web looking for “unique golf items” and he happened upon LogoPutter. This customer was facing some, what he thought were big challenges. He needed the putters to be of the highest quality and he needed them delivered in 12 days’ time. We directed him to our website to see our endorsements and be assured of the premium quality, and then we explained that we do all our work here locally and can typically turn an order around in 7 – 10 days.

The rest, as they say, is history. This client was so delighted with the LogoPutter that he kept one for himself and the next time he went out to play, he fired a 76 – his lowest round ever!

The story here is that this client gave us an opportunity and we responded with a unique golf gift and a timely delivery. He has since recommended us to other divisions within his $650 million dollar corporation.

LogoPutter performs in business and on the greens. Thank you for the chance to provide you and your company with our exceptional product and customer service.
